Please feel free to contact the data protection officer directly at any time with your questions concerning your data protection rights and/or your rights as data subject.

2. Personal data processing and purposes of data processing

When you register for an EFSA training, we will collect the following mandatory data:

- Name, first name, title
- Affiliation

- Postal address
- E-mail address
- EFSA member group
- Your EFSA involvement
- Your motivation to participate in the e-learning.

The purpose of processing the mandatory data is to identify you as an e-learning trainee, to check the provided data for plausibility, to enable EFSA to decide on your eligibility for the e-learning, and to set up and administer your user account for the e-learning platform.

We also require your data in order to supply you with information before, during, and after the training. This is done to ensure optimal participation for you and to allow us to plan the e-learning and ensure that it goes smoothly.

We process data at your request and for the purposes described by Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR to fulfill the obligations of the participation agreement and to execute precontractual provisions.

We will use your e-mail address to inform you about similar trainings organized by us in the future only if you have expressly consented to this use of your e-mail address or if we have informed you thereof separately when collecting your e-mail address and have pointed out your right to object to this use at any time. To the extent that this use is not based on consent, the processing takes place on the basis of Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR. We have a legitimate interest in notifying our participants of other trainings also organized by us.

We will erase the personal data collected by us no later than six months after the training was held. Storage beyond the respective period stated will take place only if and to the extent that:

- we are obligated to store the data for a longer period pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. c GDPR based on statutory obligations of storage and documentation (especially Sec. 147 of the German Fiscal Code (AO)). In this case, the data will be stored only to the extent required by the retention obligation.
- you have consented to storage beyond that pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR.
- we use your e-mail address, subject to the requirements set out in Sec. 7 (3) of the German Act Against Unfair Competition (UWG), to inform you of future e-learning offers by e-mail. In this case, we will store your e-mail address and your first and last names until you object to processing for this purpose.

To accept e-learning registrations from our online visitors, we have commissioned the service provider mailingwork GmbH, Birkenweg 7, 09569 Oederan, Germany ("mailingwork"). The purpose of working with the service provider is the professional management of online registrations. This service requires storing the collected data on the servers of mailingwork in Germany.

We have entered into a data processing agreement with mailingwork. By signing this contract with us, mailingwork agrees to process the data on our behalf pursuant to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and to ensure that the rights of the data subjects are protected.

If you register using an online form on our website, please also see our data protection information, accessible at https://www.item.fraunhofer.de/en/data_protection.html, that explains which data are already collected and processed as soon as you visit our website.

3. Forwarding data to third parties

We do not transfer your personal data to third parties for purposes other than those mentioned below.

a) For performance of the contract

Your personal data are disclosed to third parties where legally permissible and required, pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. b GDPR, for the performance of the contracts and agreements with you. This includes in particular disclosure of the data to the European Food Safety Authority (EFSA) in Parma, Italy, for the purpose of evaluating your eligibility for the e-learning and for planning and organizing the training. Furthermore, your name, first name and e-mail address will be entered into the Fraunhofer iLIAS learning management system to create your user account that will allow you to participate in the e-learning. Third parties may use the transferred data for the above-mentioned purposes only.

b) For additional purposes

Beyond the above, we disclose your personal data to third parties only if:

- you have given consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. a GDPR, or
- in the event that there is a legal requirement for disclosure pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. c GDPR.

4. Rights of the data subject

You have the following rights:

- pursuant to Art. 7 (3) GDPR, to withdraw your consent at any time. This means that we may not continue the data processing based on this consent in the future;
- pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, to obtain access to your personal data processed by us. In particular, you may request information about the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, the categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, and the envisaged period for which the data will be stored. Moreover, you have the right to request rectification, erasure, or restriction of processing, to object to processing, the right to lodge a complaint, and to obtain information about the source of your data if they were not collected by us, as well as about the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, if applicable, meaningful information about the logic involved;
- pursuant to Art. 16 GDPR, to obtain the rectification of inaccurate data or the completion of your personal data without undue delay;
- pursuant to Art. 17 GDPR, to obtain the erasure of personal data saved by us unless processing is necessary to exercise the right of freedom of expression and information, to comply with a legal obligation, for reasons of public interest, or to establish, exercise or defend legal claims;

- pursuant to Art. 18 GDPR, to obtain restriction of processing of your personal data if you contest the accuracy of the data, the processing is unlawful but you oppose the erasure of the personal data, or if we no longer need the personal data but you still require the data for establishing, exercising or defending legal claims, or if you have filed an objection to the processing pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR;
- pursuant to Art. 20 GDPR, to receive your personal data that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to request the transmission of those data to another controller and
- pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. Generally, you may contact the supervisory authority of your habitual residence, place of work or the registered offices of our organization.

Right to object

If your personal data is processed on the basis of legitimate interests pursuant to Art. 6 (1) lit. f GDPR, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR if reasons exist for doing so that are based on your special situation or if the objection relates to direct marketing. In the latter case, you have a general right to object, with which we will comply without you having to provide information about a special situation.

If you would like to assert your right to object, an e-mail to kommunikation@item.fraunhofer.de will suffice.
